"Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's." What is God's is the only place of God, and so we "give the Lord glory and honor. We who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ know that all the gods of the nations are things of naught," and so we reject the false gods of power, possessions, pleasure, and security. We place all our hope in the "almighty and ever-living God" who is "our source of power and inspiration." Since it has been entrusted to the Church to reveal the mystery of God, who is the ultimate goal of humans, it opens up to us at the same time the meaning of our own existence, that is, the innermost truth about ourselves. The Church truly knows that only God, whom it serves, meets the deepest longings of the human heart, which is never fully satisfied by what this world has to offer. Vatican II, Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, 1965:41 Gerald Darring

World Mission Sunday October 18

At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday. Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. The collection this Sunday is organized by the Pontifical Missions Society. The funds collected assist some 1,250 mission dioceses under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. As agreed by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada, a portion of the Canadian contributions to this collection will continue to be used until 2020 to assist six dioceses in Northern Canada which for many years had also been under the jurisdiction of the Congregation.

All Souls Envelopes

I have placed a few envelopes at the back of the Church and you can find one in your box of envelopes. If you are not attending live Mass at this time you can drop by the Office to pick one up or call and I will place one in the mailbox for you.
